

Linking your WeatherLink account to your FieldClimate account

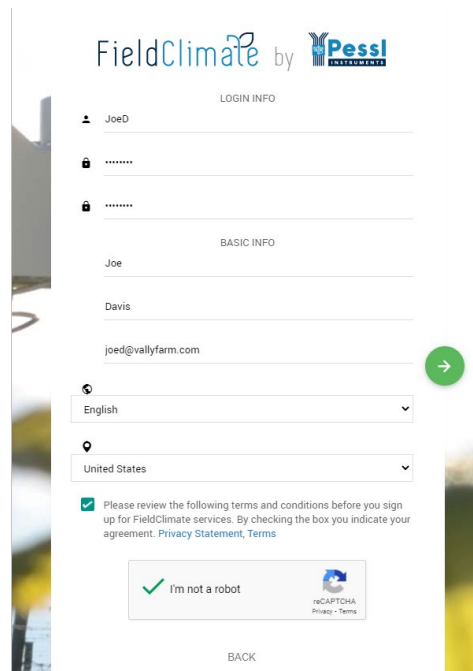

To begin pushing your Davis Weather station data to the Pessl Instruments FieldClimate platform, you will need to perform a few simple tasks.

If you have not already done so, before you start:

- Set up and configure your Davis weather station or EnviroMonitor system as directed in your Davis weather station manuals.
- Create your WeatherLink.com account.

Create and log in to your FieldClimate Account

1. Visit FieldClimate -> <https://ng.fieldclimate.com>
2. If you are new to FieldClimate, register. Chose a username, password. You will receive an email with instructions to activate your account.

Connect your WeatherLink Account to FieldClimate

1. Log into your WeatherLink.com account.
2. On the left side of your dashboard, under your name, click the account icon.
3. Copy the API Key v2 and API Secret.
